Community Dance Internship

Description

Dawns i Bawb are looking for a Dance Intern as part of its plan to develop its team of freelance Community Dance practitioners. With thanks to financial support from the Arts Council of Wales and the Foyle Foundation, this internship will offer a 6 month paid training programme to develop skills of a dance artist to facilitate sessions and projects with people of all ages and abilities across Gwynedd, Conwy and Anglesey.

1 x Internship scheme for a Welsh speaker or learner with an A Level/BTEC in Dance/Performing Arts or at least 2 years experience of regular dance training.

This scheme welcomes those with basic Welsh or are learning Welsh and are keen to develop their skills in leading dance sessions through Welsh. The Internship will take place over 6 months. You will receive training for 16 hours per week at a training wage of between £8.21-£10 an hour depending on experience, plus travelling expenses. The training will involve working specifically with people with disabilities and other groups that work specifically through the medium of Welsh. At the end of the training, there will be an opportunity to work for Dawns i Bawb as a freelance dance practitioner, working specifically on our Dance & Disability programme and our Adults Programme across the three counties.

Requirements

- An A Level/BTEC in Dance/Performing Arts or have received at least 2 years of regular dance training
- We welcome applications from Welsh learners who agree to commit to developing their Welsh language skills as part of their training
- Applicants should have an interest in Community Dance practice
- Applicants should be based in, or live in close proximity to, Gwynedd, Conwy and Anglesey
- We would prefer applicants to have a drivers licence and access to a car as regular travelling to sessions across the three counties will be required
- All successful applicants must undergo an Enhanced DBS check
- We welcome applicants of all ages and abilities

How to apply

Send an up-to-date CV plus a covering letter outlining your skills and experience and why you are interested in the Internship to the email address below by Friday 30th August 2019. We also require the name of at least one referee.

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend an informal interview and will be asked to attend and to participate in, one of our community classes. This will help you experience our work and ensure that you feel that this is the correct opportunity for you.
