When you come to this page you will see lots of information telling you about this event.

Introduction

This full day event held in Leicester is for anyone who is a working dancer who wants to work professionally as a dancer and leader and who has a learning disability.

On the day, learning disabled dancers from all over the UK will come to talk about what it means to be a dancer and dance leader, and of course to dance!

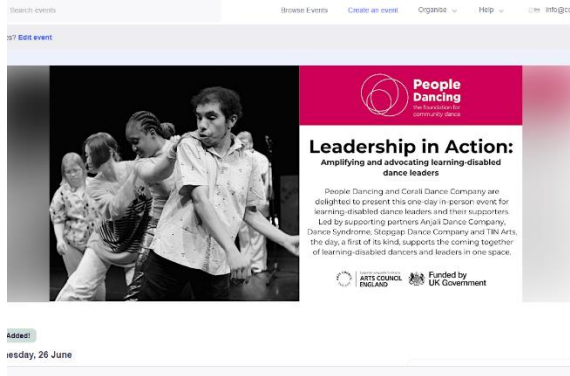

You will need to travel to Leicester on the day.

There is a small fee to pay for attending.

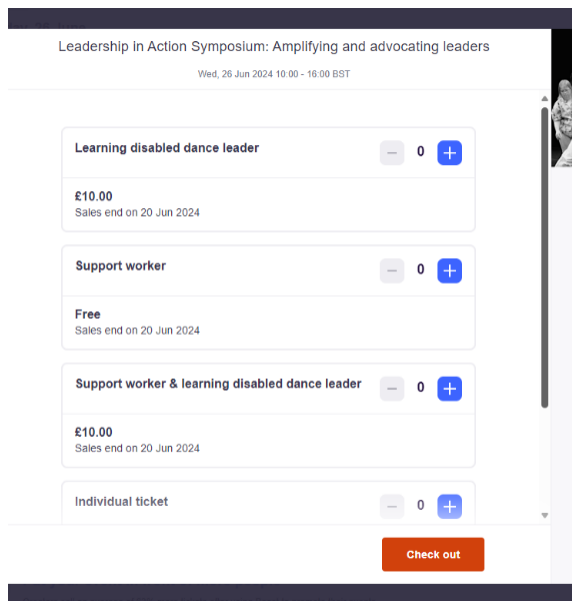

If you need personal care you will need to bring someone with you – please come.

>> Book your place for 26 June here

Click on the red words “Book your place for 26 June here” which takes you to the booking page.

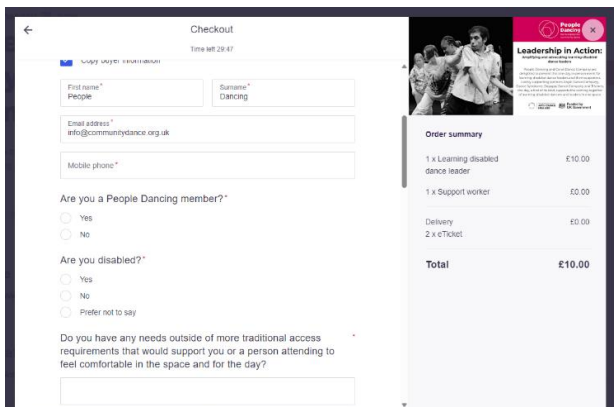

When you click you go to another site called Eventbrite. This is where you will make your booking.

If you need someone to come with you as a support person, choose the “Learning disabled dance leader ticket for you, and the support worker ticket for the person who will come with you.

Your support worker’s ticket will be free.

If you need personal care on the day, you will need to bring a support person with you.

On this site it will ask you questions about yourself. This information is important and helps the organisers to know who is coming.

The form will ask if you have any allergies to food. This is important so food that you are allergic to is not included in the lunch.

The form will ask you about your access needs. This information lets us know what you might need to help you get the best out of the day.

When you have filled in the form, you will be asked to pay for your ticket with a debit or credit card. You won't be able to carry on without making a payment.

If you need help filling in this form, please call one of the partner organisations and a staff member will guide you through it.
